

Zachary F. Lackey

associate

Zac is an associate in the firm's Litigation Department and Environmental Practice Group.

Zac has a strong academic background and practical experience in both the public and private sectors. His professional experience includes valuable internships and clerkships at the U.S. Department of the Interior, Oregon Department of Justice, NewSun Energy, Vestas American Wind Technology, and the Lewis & Clark Small Business Legal Clinic. In these roles, he gained extensive experience analyzing complex legal issues related to solar, wind, and hydroelectric energy, drafting legal memoranda, and preparing legal case evaluations. Zac also holds a Certificate in Energy, Innovation, and Sustainability Law from Lewis & Clark Law School.

Before pursuing a legal career, Zac worked in the financial industry for six years, where, after completing a leadership development program, Zac held roles in management and business administration.
